

Outstanding Service Award

Chairman Lawrence Russell, with Mrs. Yuspeh and Mark Cashio, Charlie Yuspeh Service Award winner

A new ASIS service award was presented to Mark Cashio for his dedication and volunteer leadership to ASIS Ch. 29. The award is in memory and in special recognition of Mr. Charles Louis Yuspeh who died October 27, 2003 at the age of 76 years.

Charlie was involved in the security industry in the New Orleans area for decades and shaped several companies locally including Honeywell, Certified Security and others. He was always a supporter and was a Founding Member of the New Orleans Chapter of ASIS International, Ch. 29. He served on Host Committees when the National Conventions were held in New Orleans. And was recognized as a Life Member. Congratulations Mark!

ADVERTISE ON ASIS

List your Employment Opportunities on the ASIS New Orleans Website and Newsletter
Reply to Matt Weisensee at <mailto:mweisensee@wackenhut.com>

Volunteer leadership in ASIS International is an opportunity to enhance your professional career while advancing the goals of our chapter for the good of the membership. We appreciate your efforts and the time that you have given all of us during the year.

Next Meeting

When: Wednesday, March 24, 11:30AM

Where: Bravo's Restaurant,
St. Charles Ave. NOLA

Speaker: Dr. Joseph Molyneux, recently retired as Vice President of Security of a major multinational corporation, Freeport McMoran.

Topic: Terrorism: The Effect on International Business

Thanks to our February Speaker,
Ludmila Reigel, Special Agent, FBI
New Orleans INFRAGARD Coordinator.

<http://www.infraguard.net/>

Announcement: Shirts Available

Chapter 29 Polo Shirts are still available from 2003 National Convention - Only $10 each.

Click Here to Order via e-mail